ESTABLISHED in 1926

Welcome to the 2025 Appalachian Fair August 18-23, 2025

The Appalachian Fair Association, Inc. is a non-profit, agricultural, educational organization and sponsors the fair for the sole purpose of creating a greater interest in a better agricultural and richer rural life in the Appalachian Highlands region.

Our area schools and local extension offices contribute much to the success of the fair and all regional schools are urged to support the fair in every way possible.

The premium list is very attractive, and it is hoped that full entries will be made in all departments. All citizens of the entire region are cordially invited to exhibit and attend the fair each year.

Non-registered entries will be accepted on the day of entry; however, pre-registration is encouraged and recommended.

Appalachian Fair's General Rules & Regulations

To ensure a safe, fun, family-friendly environment, the Appalachian Fair implements these rules and regulations for having the best experience possible!

1. All items brought onto the fairgrounds are subject to search by security.
2. Prohibited Items: Selfie sticks – Backpacks are discouraged – Firearms or weapons of any kind – Outside food & beverages. Coolers are not allowed to be brought into the fair. Exceptions may be made for guests with special dietary needs, including but not limited to baby food/formula. – NO alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs are allowed – Tobacco products are discouraged and NOT allowed in the seating areas or barns – Umbrellas are NOT allowed in the seating areas – Camping or tailgating chairs are NOT allowed at the concert area – NO PETS ALLOWED. Animals are not permitted on the grounds at any time unless they are a part of an authorized show or exhibit. Only trained service dogs assisting the handicapped are allowed on the fairgrounds. We know you love your pets, and we love animals too, but they are not allowed in the fair. This is for their safety as well as the safety of all guests. Guests who use service animals MUST present the animals with their service vests on, always retain control of their animals, provide legal papers on the animal, and should keep them on a leash or harness while visiting. – Drones are NOT allowed – Any other item deemed unsafe by the Appalachian Fair Security Officials and the Washington County Sheriff's Department.
3. In accordance with FAA regulations and for the safety of our fairgoers, drones and other motorized aircraft systems are prohibited from flying above or near the fairgrounds without prior permission from fair management.
4. The Appalachian Fair is a rain or shine event including all events and concerts taking place. NO rainchecks or refunds will be issued. The Appalachian Fair monitors all potentially hazardous weather conditions. In the event the National Weather Service announces a severe weather warning within a 5-mile radius of the fairgrounds, weather advisories will be announced immediately on the public address system and our social media outlets directing guests to seek shelter. Designated severe weather shelters are located in the Farm & Home Building, Building 1, Building 3, the Appalachian Heritage Museum, and the Show Barn. If a concert or special event is taking place, the event will be delayed, postponed, or canceled depending on the severity and duration of the weather event. Fairgoers will be notified of any weather-related announcements via social media and our website – www.appalachianfair.com
5. Soliciting, selling items, promoting other events, organizations, etc. are strictly prohibited without prior approval from the Appalachian Fair. Unauthorized signs, banners, or posting handbills are not allowed and are strictly prohibited anywhere on the grounds, including the parking fields and surrounding fence areas. All promotions and sales of any kind in and around the fairgrounds must be registered and pre-approved by fair management. Please contact our office for more information at 423.477.3211 or appalachianfair@gmail.com
6. Shirt & Shoes are REQUIRED. Appropriate attire is always required for a family-friendly atmosphere. Open-toed shoes are not permitted on some rides. See the list of ride requirements on the Drew Exposition page or our website under Entertainment.
7. Appropriate conduct should be maintained for a family-friendly atmosphere. Those displaying inappropriate conduct will be asked to leave the grounds or removed from the grounds by security.
8. All property of every character, whether entered for exhibition, display, sale, or any other purpose and brought onto the grounds or into the buildings, will be kept entirely at risk of the owner, who assumes all responsibility for any loss, damage, theft, or accident that may occur. Neither the Appalachian Fair Association, its officers, or agents, will be responsible for any such loss, damage, or theft and it is distinctly understood that exhibitors, concessionaires, and all other persons, firms, or corporations having property on the grounds and desiring protection from such loss or damage must make their own arrangements, therefore. The Appalachian Fair is not responsible for lost or stolen items left in cars or on people attending the fair. Lost & found items may be reported and turned in at the fair office.
9. Tickets purchased through a third-party provider are NOT authentic and cannot be guaranteed. All tickets MUST and may only be purchased through the Appalachian Fair website: www.appalachianfair.com – or in person at our Box Office. Lost or stolen tickets are the responsibility of the purchaser. All tickets, coupons, etc. become void after the last day of the event.
10. Smile! Photos, video, and audio may be taken for promotional purposes. By entering the Appalachian Fair, you consent, waive all rights to royalties and release the Appalachian Fair of any liability. You agree to your likeness being used, published, or reproduced in any and all media which can be used now or in the future, for any purpose by or in connection with the Appalachian Fair.
11. Handicap parking is available in Lot 5 on a first-come basis, just outside of Gate 5, for those with valid handicap tags.
12. Washington County EMS will provide emergency medical services. For all first aid and medical emergencies go to the First Aid Station located next to the Appalachian Heritage Museum and the Appalachian Arena or contact fair personnel.
13. Security is directed by the Washington County Sheriff's Office. As a safety precaution, the Appalachian Fair along with the WCSO encourages parents to take a photo of their child/children just before entering the fairgrounds. In the event that you become separated, this will allow fair personnel and the WCSO to quickly share a photo of the missing child/children around the grounds with other officers and staff to bring about a quick reunion. Traffic assistance is also provided by the WCSO.

14. Fair re-entry is not permitted. Handstamps are not used. You will be required to purchase a ticket to re-enter the fairgrounds once you leave the gate, so make sure you bring everything you will need inside the fairgrounds with you.
15. E-coli/Salmonella exposure is an inherent risk in any location where food and animals are present. Hand-washing stations and hand sanitizer dispensers have been placed around the grounds and should be used after petting animals or before eating. Guests should take every precaution and evaluate their own health risks. Purchase of a ticket and entry onto the fairgrounds constitutes your understanding of these risks and your willingness to undertake the risk of exposure.
16. COVID exposure is an inherent risk in any public location where people are present. Guests should only attend after evaluating their own health risks. Purchase of a ticket and entry onto the fairgrounds constitutes your understanding of these risks and your willingness to undertake the risk of exposure.
17. All property, fixtures, merchandise, etc. of every character, whether entered for exhibition, display, sale, or any other purpose and brought into the grounds or buildings will be kept entirely at risk of the owner, who assumes all responsibility for any loss, damage, theft, or accident that may occur. Neither the Appalachian Fair Association, its officers, or agents, will be responsible for any such loss, damage, theft, or seizure by law enforcement and it is distinctly understood that exhibitors, concessionaires, and all other persons, firms, or corporations having property on the grounds and desiring protection from such loss or damage must make their own arrangements, therefore.
18. The Secretary/Manager of the Appalachian Fair Association shall have supervision and control of all exhibitors, whether in the buildings, arena, or grounds and reserves the right to prescribe the dimensions and regulate the position of all signs, control the distribution of advertising matter, and direct the arrangements of articles on exhibition so far as same may be necessary to secure harmony and attractive appearance. All instructions shall come from him through authorized officials.
19. The Appalachian Fair reserves the right to refuse to display any item considered unsuitable for a fair exhibit.
20. Commercial Vendors & Concessionaires: All Commercial Vendors and Concessionaires, together with their employees, assistants, and helpers, must obey the rules, or any other special regulations of the Appalachian Fair Association they have been notified of, and any refusal or neglect to do so will forfeit any rights they may have had by virtue of such privilege or concessions. The Appalachian Fair Association reserves the right to refund in whole or in part, money paid for commercial vendors or concessions space and refuse to allow any party, or article to operate or do business should they or it become objectionable.
21. Special rules governing each department are in addition to the General Rules and are listed in the department's respective catalogue following the list of Appalachian Fair General Rules and Regulations.
22. Competition is open to the world, unless otherwise stated.

Catalog & Entry Forms are available for download on our website or may be picked up in the fair office

Appalachian Fair Youth Scholarship Program

The Appalachian Fair awards two $1,000 scholarships annually to qualified applicants selected by the Scholarship Committee. The applicant must be a permanent resident of the area of Tennessee served by the Appalachian Fair and either a high school senior or currently enrolled in a college, university, or accredited vocational school. Applicants must have a 2.5 GPA. Applicants must have participated in the Appalachian Fair within the past two years. For an application and a copy of requirements, please contact the Appalachian Fair Office at 423.477.3211. Entry deadline is April 10 of each year.

Appalachian Fair's Rules & Regulations for Farm & Home Exhibitors

1. Entry pre-registration will be accepted from April 1 – August 2. The online entry link can be found on the Farm & Home page under Departments on our website. Entry forms are available in the fair office, or on our website: www.appalachianfair.com. Completed entry forms may be submitted in person at the fair office, emailed to: appalachianfair@gmail.com, or mailed to: Appalachian Fair, PO Box 8218, Johnson City, TN 37615. Questions? Call us at 423.477.3211 during normal business hours.
2. Entry removal will be held ONE DAY ONLY* - Tuesday, August 26 from 3pm-6pm. Exhibitors will forfeit premium monies awarded on any exhibit removed before this time unless otherwise stated. Items not picked up from the fair office within 30 days will become the property of the Appalachian Fair.
3. Entry tags may be picked up in the fair office prior to drop-off dates for items that have been pre-registered. This will allow you to pre-tag your items prior to the drop-off day for your entry. Place the entry tag in the upper right-hand corner of the item. This will speed up your entry process. Non-registered entries will be accepted on the day of entry for the respected department without pre-registration, however, pre-registration is recommended.
4. Those engaged in any line of work as a profession or business, or as a teacher of the same, are considered professional and are not eligible to exhibit for competition.
5. All entries must be original and must be entered under the name of the person who did the work.
6. The Appalachian Fair reserves the right to disqualify ALL entries of any person interfering with the judges, clerks, or the placing of ribbons. Only staff will be allowed in the building during judging of non-perishables; or on the stage/backstage area before or during the perishable judging contests.
7. Premium checks will be distributed on pick-up day if possible; otherwise, they will be mailed to the address on file for the exhibitor. Please make sure that the address, phone, & email information is filled out correctly at the time of entry.
8. Refer to the Appalachian Fair General Rules and Regulations on pages 7-8 of this catalog for more information.
9. Items entered should be in NEW condition; made/created/completed within the last 12 months (unless otherwise stated in the item description); not soiled or damaged. Exhibitors may enter only one article in each lot. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to properly select the correct lot for entry of your item. Items previously entered are not eligible for re-entry in any lot. Question? Call the office!
10. Items containing flammable liquids will not be accepted.
11. For Horticulture, Field Crops, & Floral exhibits all items must be grown by the exhibitor and produced in the current year.
12. Judges are instructed not to award premiums unless the items are deemed worthy of the award.
13. Items which cannot be appropriately displayed will not be accepted unless approved by the department manager. Maximum size may be limited to 60" in any direction.
